As an aquatics’ community, we are extremely fortunate to have event hosts like Budapest that share our passion for aquatics and have the capability and flexibility to organise FINA’s most prestigious event under such short and special circumstances. We are deeply grateful to our Hungarian hosts, a sentiment I am sure is also shared by the competing athletes in Budapest.

Just five years ago, we were here in Budapest, a vibrant capital city so centrally connected to its waters. From open water swimmers racing in Lake Balaton to the other aquatics venues dotting through the Twin Cities along the banks of the Danube River, one immediately feels the passion and importance aquatics carries within us.

I vividly remember watching swimmers and divers performing at Duna arena, an amazing venue built just before the FINA World Championships 2017, that now fulfils the needs of the Hungarian aquatics community. We saw a city park transform itself into a spectacular outdoor artistic swimming venue, and who could forget watching Hungary play under the bright lights in the water polo final at the Alfred Hajos Complex.

That this venue rests in the heart of Budapest and carries the name of its architect, Alfred Hajos, is a testament to the level of aquatics in Hungary. The first-ever Olympic champion, Hajos won the 100m and 1200m freestyle swimming events for Hungary at the Athens 1896 Olympics, so a landmark public facility both designed by Hajos and carrying his name shows just how deep the spirit for aquatics runs here.

Swimming, diving and water polo are not silent sports, especially in Hungary. The crowds will come out to cheer – and cheer loud.

Athletes are the heartbeat of aquatics. I can’t wait to be in the stands with the fans cheering you on, knowing what we are watching is the world’s greatest athletes performing on the grandest of stages. I am sure Budapest 2022 will represent another milestone in the history of this spectacular competition.

To all the athletes competing,
I wish you the best of luck!

Captain Husain Al-Musallam
FINA President
MESSAGE
LOC CHAIRMAN

Dear FINA Family Members, Dear Friends,

Welcome back – perhaps this is the most authentic start for a first message on behalf of our Organising Committee for the 2022 FINA World Championships, to be held in Hungary. Five years after the highly successful 2017 edition, it’s time to host another grand event – though I do think that many of you also visited Budapest in the meantime as we also organised a series of meets in almost all disciplines, on an annual basis.

These events – and the investments Hungary made for 2017 – have enabled us to step up this year and offer our support for the FINA Family when it turned out that another year might have gone without World Championships.

Five years ago, we set the bar really high, that time the OC and the Hungarian Government gave its utmost to stage a landmark event with brilliant venues, maximum service, while turning the sport action into non-stop celebrations involving tens of thousands of aquatic fans who created electrifying atmosphere everywhere for 16 amazing days.

This June shall be different. A bit. Celebrations will continue as the fans are still in love with aquatics and are ready to cheer for the heroes. Still, the emphasis will be on the sport action. On the racing environment. This is not more and definitely not less than an exceptional opportunity for the world’s best athletes to show themselves in five disciplines at top level.

Still, we do not want to repeat 2017. That was unique in many aspects. This 2022 edition will also be special – for other reasons. First of all, this is going to be the first World Championships since the 1991/98 Perth editions where we shall not use temporary pools, only existing venues. This is going to be another example-setting event for sustainability, smart-budgeting where we keep the sport in the very focus.

Five years ago, the FINA Family hailed us for setting a new world record while constructing the Duna Arena in less than two years – and organising a World Championship in a similar timeframe, while playing the saviour role after Guadalajara had to pull out. Now we are eying another WR – to prepare everything for a World Championships in four months.

With all the venues being ready and with the tremendous experience our dedicated organising committee members have gained during the past half decade, I think we can set this new record. If we achieve it, you’ll be able to celebrate that together with us as it would mean that everything is ready for the 2022 FINA World Championships.

I think we are on the right track.
See you in June!

Our beloved Duna Arena will be a perfect site for swimming and diving – even in legacy mode (with a seating capacity of 4500). The magical Margaret Island shall witness another water polo spectacle – and its other 50m outdoor pool (named after legendary Hungarian coach Tamás Szechy) will welcome back the artistic swimmers this time; it was a perfect venue at the 2006 and 2010 European Championships.

And we have novelties too. Open water swimmers will discover a new location – though Europe's best warriors had already enjoyed the exceptionally clean waters of Lake Lupa, site of last year's continental showcase. And with a brave new approach, we agreed with FINA to spread the first week of water polo clashes to four venues, so besides the good old Margaret Island, three cities from the countryside shall also feel the World Championships fever.

At one hand, this is a proud move to promote the brand-new swimming complexes built across the country: we chose Szeged, Sopron and Debrecen, though there are plenty more around the country as more than a dozen state-of-the-art complexes opened their respective doors in recent years.

On the other hand, this may also contribute to the promotion of water polo. With four venues involved, like in other team sports, matches are held only in the afternoons and evenings, which should enhance better fan attendance, higher TV ratings and last but not least it favours the athletes who don’t need to play early morning games on one day and late evening in the following round.

As pointed out previously, Budapest2022 will be the first edition of the FINA World Championships in the 21st century not to feature a temporary pool for any discipline.

VESZPRÉM

THE CITY OF QUEENS

Veszprém is a city of county status and seat of Veszprém megye (county), western Hungary. It lies along the Séd River, spanned there by a viaduct, in the Bakony Mountains, about 120 kms southwest of Budapest.

The town already had a cathedral and castle in the 9th century; it was supposedly named after the Polish prince Bezprim. The city is built on five hills and contains many historical and architectural monuments: ancient houses, the Cathedral of St. Michael, the Gizella Chapel with valuable 13th-century frescoes, the Baroque bishop’s palace (1765–76), the Franciscan cloister (1778–76), and the fortress with its Heroes’ Gate. Between 1552 and the end of the 17th century, Veszprém was intermittently occupied by the Turks.

The city is a road, rail, and market centre. The University of Pannonia was founded in 1949 as the Heavy Chemical Industry Faculty of the Technical University of Budapest. The city’s industrial sector includes automotive, mechanical engineering, electronics, food-processing, construction, and information technology industries.

KECSKEMÉT

Kecskemét, which hides all the beauties and values of the famous Hungarian Great Plain, is located in the central part of Hungary, on the sand ridge between the Danube and the Tisza. Kecskemét lies 85 kilometres south of Budapest, the city is reachable in approximately 50 minutes on the M5 motorway. Kecskemét is the 7th biggest city in Hungary with its 321 square meter area and 112,000 inhabitants.

This diversity is the heritage of the past, as the „city of Golden Sands” has been a meeting point for traders, different denominations and cultures for centuries.

One of the most famous specialities of Kecskemét is the apricot and the „fütyülős” apricot brandy made from it. At the end of the 19th century, the market-place of the one-time market town transformed into a main square surrounded with Art Nouveau palaces. Nowadays, Kecskemét is the capital of the Hungarian Art Nouveau, its downtown is adorned with the most beautiful masterpieces of the style. The town also hosts scientific institutions, workshops and unique collections of music, fine arts, world-famous animated films, and a whole range of recurring festivals year by year.

Kecskemét has been the seat of Bács-Kiskun country since 1950, it is a dynamically developing industrial, commercial and cultural centre. Due to its logistic conditions, the significant industrial development and the establishment of the Mercedes-Benz plant Kecskemét became Hungary’s automotive centre of national significance in 2012.

19th WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS
HUNGARY
WHERE TO SUBMIT A VISA APPLICATION?

Uniform visa applications have to be submitted at the representation of Hungary or at the Consulate/Embassy representing Hungary on visa issuance in the country of the applicant.

Which of the Hungarian consulates are responsible for issuing visa?

- where the applicants resides legally and has a habitual residence (the applicant is a citizen of the esteemed country or holds a permit that makes a stay longer than 3 months possible – e.g. residence permit)
- the applicant does not have a habitual residence or right for long term stay but at the moment stays legally there and gave reasons for applying at that consulate. This is not a personal right, it depends on the consulate's consideration and can only happen for an extremely good cause.

The stay is legal if, according to the third-countries law, the applicant is entitled to stay within the consulate's authorized area for short stay (e.g. with a visa) or for longer stay (e.g. with residence permit).

If there is no Hungarian mission in the country where the applicant has his/her habitual residence, a Schengen Member State may represent Hungary regarding visa issuance, in the framework of an existing visa representation agreement.

Visas are issued on behalf of Hungary by other Schengen Member States in accordance with visa representation agreements in countries listed on the website at: http://konzuliszolgalat.kormany.hu/visa-issuance-on-behalf-of-hungary

GENERAL INFORMATION ON ENTERING HUNGARY
