I GENERAL PROVISIONS

1 NAME

World Aquatics, formerly known as the Fédération Internationale de Natation (FINA), is the sole and exclusive world governing body for all Aquatics.

2 LEGAL STATUS, HEADQUARTERS, AND RESOURCES

2.1 World Aquatics is established for an indefinite period as an association in accordance with article 60 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code.

2.2 World Aquatics has its headquarters in the city of Lausanne, Switzerland. The headquarters may be changed by decision of the Congress at the proposal of the Bureau.

2.3 World Aquatics may open regional offices, high level training and development centres in other countries.

2.4 World Aquatics’ resources may be derived from donations, bequests, sponsorships, partnerships, broadcasting, licensing, merchandising rights, public subsidies, membership fees, income generated by the assets of World Aquatics, and any other legal resources.

3 COMMITMENT STATEMENT

For the good of Aquatics and all Athletes, World Aquatics shall ensure that all Aquatics are governed, organised, developed and managed in accordance with the principles of democracy, right to equality, and no discrimination between any race, skin colour, gender, religion, sexual orientation, language, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth, disability or any other reason, neutrality, transparency, accountability, fairplay, inclusion, sportsmanship and clean sport.

Above all, Athletes are the central focus of World Aquatics’ mission.

4 OBJECTIVES

The objectives of World Aquatics are:

a) to promote, develop and be the governing body for Aquatics throughout the world;

b) to provide fair and clean sport and protect the integrity of Aquatics;
c) to promote safe Aquatics and the protection of Athletes from all forms of harassment and abuse;

d) to encourage participation in Aquatics at all levels throughout the world, regardless of age, gender or race, and support activities aiming at ensuring that Aquatics and swimming skills in general are promoted in all countries and are accessible to individuals from all ages, gender, different backgrounds and capacities;

e) to approve competitions and events;

f) to adopt rules and regulations for the approval by World Aquatics of competitions and events;

g) to promote and organise World Championships and other competitions and events;

h) to support the values of the Olympic Movement and continue to play a leading role in the Olympic Movement. In particular to undertake its responsibilities to organise, supervise and officiate the Aquatics' programme at the Olympic Games;

i) to promote the development of facilities for Aquatics throughout the world;

j) to develop and encourage activities and programmes promoting the sustainability of Aquatics in all possible forms;

k) to develop and encourage the education of Athletes, Coaches, Officials and other persons involved in Aquatics; and

l) to carry out any other activity to promote Aquatics.

II MEMBERSHIP

5 ADMISSION

5.1 Any National Body governing Swimming, Open Water Swimming, Diving, High Diving, Water Polo, Artistic Swimming, Masters and/or any other discipline governed by World Aquatics in any Country shall be eligible to be a Member of World Aquatics, in accordance with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules.

5.2 Only one National Body shall be recognised as a Member in each Country.

5.3 Application for membership shall be submitted to the Bureau with all information requested by World Aquatics and with a signed undertaking by the applicant to observe and comply with this Constitution, the World Aquatics Rules as well as with the decisions of the World Aquatics Bodies.

5.4 The Bureau shall decide, in its absolute discretion, whether to admit an applicant for membership. In particular, in its decision, the Bureau is not bound by any decision of national or international political or sport organisations. If membership is not granted by the Bureau, the applicant may appeal such decision to the next Congress. The decision of the Congress shall be final but may be appealed within 21 Days from the date of notification of the decision of the Congress to the Court of Arbitration for Sport.

5.5 In relation to those Countries where two or more national bodies separately govern various disciplines of Aquatics, the Bureau shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that the interests of all Athletes and Aquatics institutions are properly promoted and the participation of all Athletes in World Aquatics competitions and events is encouraged. The Bureau will determine on a case-by-case basis, the rights and obligations that any such National Body that is not a Member of World Aquatics shall have and which benefits such National Body may receive, taking into due consideration the specificities of the relevant Country and the needs of the athletes of that Country. In any event, all national bodies shall provide the Bureau with all the information and undertakings as per Articles 5.3 and 7 of this Constitution.

6 RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

6.1 Members are entitled:

a) to use the services of World Aquatics;

b) to take part in World Aquatics competitions and events for which they are eligible, including the Olympic Games and any qualification competition, in accordance with and subject to the applicable rules and guidelines;

c) to make proposals to amend this Constitution or the World Aquatics Rules;

d) to make nominations for the position of President, Bureau Member and/or Committee Member;

e) to apply to host a World Aquatics competition or event;

f) to take part with voting right in a Congress; and

g) to exercise and receive all rights and benefits of Members as set forth in this Constitution.
6.2 Members shall have no liability in regard to debts or financial liabilities of World Aquatics.

6.3 Any of the above membership rights are subject to applicable limitations or disciplinary decisions as they may apply, from time to time, to a Member.

7 OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

Members are obliged:

a) to support World Aquatics in its efforts to achieve its objectives;

b) to fully comply at all times with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules, the WADA Code, the decisions and directives of the World Aquatics Bodies, as well as the decisions of CAS;

c) to respect the principles of loyalty, integrity, sportsmanship and all the values expressed in the Mission Statement of this Constitution;

d) to submit their constitution or statutes, as well as any potential amendment of their constitution, to World Aquatics for approval by the Bureau;

e) to ensure that their constitution and rules comply with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules at all times;

f) to recognise in their constitution that (i) World Aquatics is the only recognized body in the world which governs Aquatics on a worldwide basis and (ii) in the case of inconsistency between the Member’s constitution and/or rules and this Constitution and/or World Aquatics Rules, the latter shall prevail;

g) to ensure that their own members comply with and implement this Constitution and World Aquatics Rules, as well as directives and decisions of the World Aquatics bodies and CAS;

h) to hold general assemblies on a regular basis, at least every two (2) years, in accordance with their constitution as approved by World Aquatics, ensuring that the general assembly approves the accounts, the budget, a technical report, as well as an audit report and that elections are held on a regular basis, at least every four (4) years. World Aquatics shall be notified of the dates and the location of the General Assembly sixty (60) Days before the general assembly. The minutes shall be provided to World Aquatics within sixty (60) Days of the general assembly;

i) to manage their affairs independently and without regard to undue influence by third parties or government(s);
j) to participate in international competitions recognized and/or approved by World Aquatics;

k) to pay the annual membership fee set pursuant to Article 9 and comply with all other financial obligations to World Aquatics; and

l) to ensure that World Aquatics is not brought into disrepute in any way whatsoever as a result of actions or omissions of the Member or of any of its members, representatives, athletes, officials or any other person subject to the Member.

8 SUSPENSION, TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP, STABILIZATION COMMITTEE AND OTHER MEASURES

8.1 Membership in World Aquatics ends:

a) if the Member no longer exists;

b) if the Member withdraws its membership; and/or

c) if the Member is expelled from World Aquatics.

8.2 Any Member that wants to withdraw its membership in World Aquatics shall give notice before the end of June in order for such withdrawal to take effect at the end of the same calendar year. The notice shall be given in writing and shall be submitted to the Executive Director by email. No refund of fees will be made.

8.3 The Bureau shall have the power to suspend or expel a Member if:

a) the Member does not comply with its obligations towards World Aquatics;

b) the Member significantly violates this Constitution or the World Aquatics Rules;

c) according to the respective general assembly of a Member, the Member has lost its status as a National Body representing Aquatics in its country;

d) the Member is unable to preserve its independence for reasons beyond its control (e.g. in case of undue governmental interference);

e) the Member acts in a manner contrary to any of World Aquatics’ objectives; or

f) in the view of the Bureau, other important reasons justify a suspension or an expulsion.

8.4 Unless there are reasons of urgency, before taking a decision of suspension or expulsion, the Bureau shall hear the Member, in writing or orally. A Bureau decision of suspension or expulsion of a Member can be appealed to the CAS within twenty-one (21) Days from the date of the notification of the decision.

8.5 A decision of suspension by the Bureau can be imposed against a Member for an indefinite period of time and the lifting of the suspension may be made subject to the fulfilment of certain requirements to be defined from time-to-time by the Bureau. A suspension may also be imposed for a fixed period of time, to be determined by the Bureau in accordance with the circumstances of the case. The Bureau may revoke a suspension at any time.

8.6 A suspended Member may not exercise any of its membership rights during the period of suspension, including without limitation the right to attend and participate in a Congress.

8.7 In place of, or in addition to any suspension of a Member, the Bureau has the right to impose, upon having heard the Member orally or in writing, any or more of the following sanctions:

a) refer the Member to the Aquatics Integrity Unit;

b) set specific measures, terms or conditions to be met or steps to be undertaken to the satisfaction of the Bureau;

c) issue a caution or a warning;

d) impose a fine;

e) withhold grants or subsidies;

f) exclude any World Aquatics competitions and events or any World Aquatics activities to be held in the country of the Member;

g) exclude Athletes, Athlete Support Personnel and/or Officials from any World Aquatics competitions and events or any World Aquatics activities or positions or bodies;

h) remove or deny accreditation of, or other benefits to, Athletes, Athlete Support Personnel and/or Officials and representatives of the suspended Member for any World Aquatics competitions and events or any World Aquatics activities; or

i) impose any other sanctions the Bureau considers appropriate.

8.8 In cases of acts of terrorism, riots, civil unrest, strike, nuclear or chemical contamination, epidemic and other similar circumstances as well as in the event of involvement of a Member’s government in a war or other similar situations, the Bureau shall have the power to take appropriate measures, aiming at preserving the safe, peaceful and regular conduct of World Aquatics competitions and events.
The measures may include the suspension or expulsion of a Member, other sanctions as well as appropriate protective measures.

8.9 The Bureau may under exceptional circumstances appoint a Stabilization Committee for a certain Member in situations where the executive body of a Member fails to adhere to practices of good governance, transparency, financial accountability and stability, or puts at risk or in disrepute the organisation and development of Aquatics in its Country or in cases where a Member does not comply with decisions of the Bureau and/or of the Congress. Such a decision requires a majority of two thirds (2/3) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions are not counted. In the event of a tie, the President has the casting vote. A disciplinary procedure and disciplinary measures as per Article 29 remain reserved.

8.10 The mandate of a Stabilization Committee may include the following:

a) management of the daily affairs of the Member;

b) establishment of a budget and financial plan and appropriate financial measures;

c) review and amendment of the constitution and the rules of the Member to ensure compliance with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules before duly submitting them for approval to the congress of the Member;

d) organisation, monitoring and/or conduct of congresses and elections; and

e) any other action necessary to ensure compliance with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules.

8.11 A Stabilization Committee shall be composed of an adequate number of individuals to be identified and appointed by the Bureau. When taking its decision, the Bureau may consult the respective NOC and/or the Continental Organisation of the Member concerned. A Stabilization Committee will act as a reform committee and may appoint a separate electoral committee for any elections that need to be carried out. The term of appointment for the Stabilization Committee will expire no later than 6 months after appointment by the Bureau but may be extended if necessary. The participation of Athletes in World Aquatics competitions and events during the installation of a Stabilization Committee shall not be negatively impacted.
9 FEES AND OTHER FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

9.1 Each Member must pay an annual membership fee decided by the Bureau. World Aquatics may set off any such fees with payments due to a Member.

9.2 Default in payment of the membership fees or other amounts which may be due by Members to World Aquatics may lead to sanctions, including suspension or, ultimately, expulsion.

9.3 The Bureau has the right to waive a membership fee, when appropriate.

III CONTINENTAL ORGANISATIONS

10 RECOGNITION

10.1 The Bureau has the power to recognize a Continental Organisation at any time.

10.2 Subject to change, the following Continental Organisations are the only continental bodies formally recognized by the Bureau:

a) Confédération Africaine de Natation (CANA);

b) PanAm Aquatics (PAQ);

c) Asia Swimming Federation (AASF);

d) LEN European Aquatics (LEN); and

e) Oceania Swimming Association (OSA).

10.3 Other than any Continental Organisation, no other zone, subregion or similar regional organization shall be recognized by World Aquatics.

11 RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

11.1 The constitution and the rules of a Continental Organisation must comply with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules and must be approved by the Bureau. Any amendment to a constitution of a Continental Organisation must be submitted to World Aquatics for approval.

11.2 In case of any inconsistency between this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules and the constitution and rules of a Continental Organisation, this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules shall prevail. A provision to this effect must be included in the constitution of any Continental Organisation.
11.3 World Aquatics may in exceptional circumstances authorise a Continental Organisation to grant membership to a National Federation that belongs geographically to another continent and is not affiliated to the Continental Organisation on that continent.

11.4 Continental Organisations shall:

a) regularly promote World Aquatics and Aquatics in their continents and regions and in compliance with the mission and the objectives of World Aquatics as per Articles 3 and 4 of this Constitution;

b) work closely with World Aquatics in every aspect so as to promote the mission and objectives of World Aquatics stated in Articles 3 and 4 of this Constitution;

c) approve, organize and/or supervise multistate as well as continental competitions in their area of jurisdiction, subject to the approval of the Bureau, to ensure the consistency of any such competition with the World Aquatics calendar;

d) foster cooperation with World Aquatics and engage in consultative meetings to resolve matters relating to the interests of Continental Organisations and World Aquatics;

e) coordinate with World Aquatics for the promotion of Aquatics by arranging development programmes, courses, clinics and conferences;

f) hold general assemblies on a regular basis, at least every two (2) years, as well as elections on a regular basis, at least every four (4) years, all in accordance with their constitution as approved by World Aquatics, ensuring that the general assembly approves the accounts, the budget, a technical report, as well as an audit report. World Aquatics shall be notified of the dates and the location of any general assembly sixty (60) Days before the general assembly. The minutes shall be provided to World Aquatics within sixty (60) Days of the general assembly;

g) propose candidates for the Bureau in accordance with their constitution;

h) co-opt the Bureau Members from their own continent as members of the bureau of such Continental Organisation;

i) ensure proper and transparent management of their financial means and obligations and provide their members and World Aquatics on an annual basis with a copy of their financial statements;
j) ensure and request from all their members that they always respect and comply with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules; and

k) comply with and enforce compliance with this Constitution and World Aquatics Rules and any decision of World Aquatics and/or the CAS.

11.5 The Bureau shall have the discretionary power to suspend or withdraw the recognition of a Continental Organization if it is considered that the Continental Organization committed a significant violation of this Constitution and/or the World Aquatics Rules or if it acted against the interest and rights of World Aquatics or any of its Members. Such a decision requires a majority of two thirds (2/3) of the valid votes cast by the Bureau Members. Abstentions are not counted. In the event of a tie, the President has the casting vote.

11.6 The Bureau determines the effects of a suspension or withdrawal of the recognition of a Continental Organisation and notably, without limitation, the recognition of a new Continental Organisation, the effects on the possibility for the Continental Organisation’s representatives or their members, Officials, Athlete Support Personnel, etc. to take part in competitions and events or other activities, or to exercise or be candidates to World Aquatics functions, and/or to receive support granted to World Aquatics Members and/or Continental Organisations. Unless otherwise determined by the Bureau, the participation of Athletes in competitions and events shall not be impacted by a suspension of a Continental Organisation.

11.7 In place of, or in addition to any of the measures mentioned in this Article, the Bureau has the right to impose other directions or guidelines to a Continental Organisation, where the circumstances so require.

11.8 Only National Federations that are both recognized by World Aquatics and by their Continental Organisation are entitled to vote at a congress of a Continental Organisation for the nomination of Continental Representatives for the Bureau as per Article 14.3.
IV ORGANISATION AND STRUCTURE OF WORLD AQUATICS

12 THE ORGANS OF WORLD AQUATICS

The following bodies are established to govern and administer World Aquatics:

a) the Congress;
b) the Bureau;
c) the Executive;
d) the Aquatics Integrity Unit;
e) the Athletes Committee;
f) the Technical Committees; and
g) the Specialised Committees.

13 THE CONGRESS

13.1 Congress – Authority: The Congress is the highest authority of World Aquatics and shall have the power to decide upon any matters arising within World Aquatics.

13.2 Congress – Forms: A Congress is held either as an Ordinary Congress or as an Extraordinary Congress. A Congress may be held in person, by teleconference, by videoconference or by another means of communication. Voting by correspondence (including email) and/or online is permitted.

13.3 Ordinary Congress: An Ordinary Congress shall be held every two (2) years, in principle at the site and on the occasion of the World Championships or of another major World Aquatics event. World Aquatics shall inform the Members by email not later than four (4) months ahead of the likely date of the Congress. The Executive Director shall send by email an invitation to all Members, together with the agenda, reports, information about the candidates of any position subject to election, and duly submitted motions and applications at least (1) month prior to the date of the Ordinary Congress.

13.4 Extraordinary Congress: An Extraordinary Congress shall be convened either by a decision of the Bureau or following a request in writing submitted to the Bureau by email by at least one fifth (1/5) of the Members. Any such request shall specify the items for the agenda. The Bureau shall fix the date and place of the Extraordinary Congress, which shall be held within three (3) months of receipt by World Aquatics of such request. The Executive Director shall send by email an invitation to all Members, together with the agenda, reports and duly submitted motions and applications at least two (2) weeks prior to the date of the Extraordinary Congress.

13.5 Each Member shall be represented by up to two (2) duly appointed delegates. If a Member is represented by only one (1) delegate, the delegate may cast both votes of the Member. Members shall send by email to the Executive Director a written notice of the names and roles of the appointed delegates within the deadline set by the World Aquatics Office. The Bureau has the right to refuse the appointed delegate in case of valid reasons.

13.6 Voting power – Members: Regardless of the number of delegates representing a Member at a Congress, each Member is only entitled two (2) votes. A Member has no voting power if its membership has been suspended or if the voting power has been suspended by a binding decision of a World Aquatics Body and/or CAS.

13.7 Voting power – The Athletes Committee: Each of the twenty (20) elected members of the Athletes Committee shall have one (1) vote at a Congress.

13.8 Attendance – World Aquatics representatives: All Bureau Members and the Honorary President shall have the right to attend a Congress, each without voting power.

13.9 Attendance – Continental Organisations: World Aquatics may invite Continental Organisations to appoint up to two (2) representatives who may attend the Congress as observers, without any voting power.

13.10 Chair of the Congress: The President, or in his or her absence, in the following order, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President, a Vice President or a Bureau Member designated by the Bureau, or any other person appointed by the Congress shall preside over the Congress. Upon proposal of the President, the conduct of the Congress may be delegated to another person. Such delegation must take place in case the President is a candidate during the election. In case the election of the President is on the agenda, at least during the election process, the chair of the Congress shall be handed to a person who is not a candidate.

13.11 Agenda – Ordinary Congress: At each Ordinary Congress the following items shall be included on the agenda:

a) verification of quorum;
b) address by the President;
c) appointment of the Chair;
d) appointment of scrutineers among the attendants (outside active Bureau members);
e) approval of the agenda;
f) report of the Bureau on its activities, presented by the President;
g) report of the Aquatics Integrity Unit on its activities, presented by the Chair of the Supervisory Council;
h) presentation of the financial report of the Treasurer, presentation of the report of the Audit Committee, presentation of the report of the External Auditors, and approval of the Financial Statements presenting two (2) fiscal years;
i) approval of the budget (financial projection) for two (2) years;
j) proposals for changes and amendments of the present Constitution;
k) release of responsibility and liability of the President, the other Bureau Members and the Executive Director;
l) election of the President (where applicable);
m) election of the Treasurer (where applicable);
n) election of the Bureau Members, including Vice Presidents (where applicable);
o) election of the members of the Supervisory Council, Adjudicatory Body, Investigatory Body and Anti-Doping Advisory Body (where applicable);
p) election of the members of the Audit Committee (where applicable);
q) appointment of the External Auditors (where applicable);
r) election of Honorary positions (where applicable); and
s) other business for which notice has been given.

13.12 Motions for Ordinary Congress: Motions, applications and proposals for amendments of the Constitution shall be considered only if submitted by a Member or by the Bureau. All motions, applications, and proposals to be considered by an Ordinary Congress must reach the Executive Director at least two (2) months prior to the Ordinary Congress and must appear on the agenda submitted to the Members.
13.13 Agenda – Extraordinary Congress: In case an Extraordinary Congress has been requested, the agenda of such Congress shall contain all items requested by the requesting Members. In case an Extraordinary Congress has been convened by the Bureau, the items of the Agenda are determined by the Bureau.

13.14 Quorum: The Congress has a quorum if more than half (more than 1/2) of the Members eligible to vote are represented. If a quorum is not present at the previously announced opening time of the Congress, the meeting shall open between 30 and 60 minutes after the original opening time. In this case, the quorum shall not be fewer than fifty (50) Members.

13.15 Voting Process – Majorities:

a) Unless otherwise stated in this Constitution, decisions by the Congress are made on vote by Simple Majority of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes shall not be counted. In the event of a tie, the President has the casting vote.

b) An amendment of the agenda of an Ordinary Congress requires a three-quarters (3/4) majority of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes shall not be counted.

c) The agenda of an Extraordinary Congress may not be altered, unless all the Members attend the Extraordinary Congress and agree unanimously to amend the agenda.

d) An amendment of this Constitution requires a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes shall not be counted.

14. THE BUREAU: COMPOSITION, TERM AND ELIGIBILITY

14.1 Bureau Members: The Bureau shall consist of the President and thirty-nine (39) Bureau Members.

14.2 President: The President is elected by the Congress.

14.3 Continental Representatives: Twenty-two (22) Bureau Members are elected by the Congress as continental representatives. They shall be distributed geographically and per gender as follows:

a) Africa: five (5), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender;

b) America: five (5), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender;

c) Asia: five (5), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender;
d) Europe: five (5), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender; and

e) Oceania: two (2), with one (1) of each gender.

The following positions shall be filled from the above quota:

a) five (5) Vice Presidents, one from each of the five Continents, including the First Vice President and the Second Vice President; and

b) the Treasurer.

Only the candidates validly nominated and approved by the Continental Organisations shall be recognised by World Aquatics. In selecting their candidates, Continental Organisations shall aim at ensuring that all their internal territories and regions are fairly represented. Accordingly, Bureau Members representing the Continental Organisations shall be selected, as far as reasonably possible, among all territories and regions and represent in a fair, balanced manner the territories and regions of each Continental Organisation. In case of any zones, sub-regions or similar, candidates shall be selected among all such geographic groups in a fair, balanced manner. Selection and nomination rules and policies are set out in the By-laws.

14.4 World-at-Large Bureau Members: Sixteen (16) additional Bureau Members are elected by the Congress as World-at-Large Bureau Members. They shall be distributed geographically and per gender as follows:

a) Africa: three (3), with no more than two (2) representatives of a single gender;

b) America: four (4), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender;

c) Asia: four (4), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender;

d) Europe: four (4), with no more than three (3) representatives of a single gender; and

e) Oceania: one (1), female or male.

In selecting the World-at-Large Bureau Members, the Congress shall aim at ensuring in its full discretion and as far as reasonably possible, that all internal territories and regions of the Continental Organisations are fairly represented. Accordingly, World-at-Large Bureau Members shall represent in a fair, balanced manner the territories and regions of each Continental Organisation. In case of any zones, sub-regions or similar, candidates shall be selected by the Congress, in its full discretion and as far as reasonably possible, among all such geographic groups in a fair, balanced manner. Selection and nomination rules and policies are set out in the By-laws.

14.5 Athletes Committee: The Chair of the Athletes Committee is ex officio a Bureau Member.

14.6 Start of Office: The elected President, Vice President and Treasurer as well as any other Bureau Member shall take office immediately after their election.

14.7 Terms of Office: The term of office of a Bureau Member (excluding the President for whom Article 20.3 applies) is four (4) years, renewable twice. Terms served are calculated cumulatively, irrespective of any interruption of the service.

14.8 Non-attendance: If in a calendar year, a Bureau Member has been absent from two (2) Bureau meetings without reasons acceptable to the Bureau, the Bureau shall have the right to declare that such a Member has forfeited his or her Bureau membership.

14.9 Age limits: Any Bureau Member ceases to be a member at the end of his/her term of office during which he or she reaches the age of seventy-five (75).

14.10 Co-opted Bureau Members: The Bureau shall have the right to co-opt a representative from the World Aquatics Member where the next Olympic Games and/or the next World Championships will be held, provided such country is not already represented in the Bureau. Such co-opted representatives shall be a Bureau Member with voting right until the closing ceremony of the Olympic Games and/or World Championships held in his/her country.

14.11 Duty and Liability: Upon his/her election, every Bureau Member undertakes to act faithfully, loyally and independently, in the best interests of World Aquatics and the good of Aquatics. Members of the Bureau are not personally liable for the debts and obligations of World Aquatics.

14.12 Eligibility: The Bureau shall not include more than one (1) voting Member of a certain country. This eligibility criteria shall not apply to the Chair of the Athletes Committee. Candidates for a position in the Bureau shall be subject to an eligibility check by the Aquatics Integrity Unit.

14.13 Campaign Requirements: The campaign of any candidate for a position in the Bureau must be conducted in dignified manner and in accordance with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules. Violation of the above may lead to the ineligibility of the candidate.

14.14 Vacancy – President: Any vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the First Vice President in a reduced term until the election of a new President at the next Congress. This reduced term does not count as part of the full term of office as per Article 14.7 of this Constitution.

14.15 Vacancies – Vice Presidents and Bureau Members: Any vacancy in the office of the First Vice President shall be filled by the Second Vice President in a reduced term until the election of a new First Vice President at the next Congress. The Bureau shall have the authority to fill any vacancy in the position of Second Vice-President, Treasurer or any other vacancy in the Bureau subject to observance and preservation of the balance in geographical and gender representation. The substitution shall be for a reduced term until the election of the vacant positions at the next Congress. Any reduced term does not count as part of the full term of office as per Article 14.7 of this Constitution.

15  THE BUREAU: CANDIDATURES

15.1 Candidatures for President: Each candidate shall be proposed by a World Aquatics Member. The World Aquatics Member shall provide the name of the candidate to the Executive Director by email at least three (3) months before the relevant Congress. Candidates shall have played an active role in Aquatics (e.g. as Athlete or as Official or Bureau Member within World Aquatics, a Continental Organisation or a Member, etc.) for at least ten (10) years before being proposed as candidate.

15.2 Candidatures for twenty-one (21) Continental Representatives: Each candidate shall be proposed by his/her Continental Organisation, based on the nomination of the candidate by his/her respective national federation, in accordance with the rules of this Constitution and the respective nomination process of each Continental Organisation, provided however that the procedure to select and nominate such candidates shall not start earlier than during the calendar year preceding the Congress that shall elect such Bureau Members. The Continental Organisations shall provide the names of their nominated candidates to the Executive Director by email at least three (3) months before the relevant Congress.

15.3 Candidatures for sixteen (16) World-at-Large Bureau Members: Each candidate shall be proposed by a World Aquatics Member of his/her Continental Organisation, in accordance with the rules of this Constitution. The World Aquatics Member shall provide the name of its candidates to the Executive Director by email at least three (3) months before the relevant Congress.

15.4 Candidatures for five (5) Vice Presidents: Each candidate shall be proposed by a World Aquatics Member of his/her Continental Organisation. The World Aquatics Member shall provide the name of its candidates to the Executive Director by email at least three (3) months before the relevant Congress.

15.5 Candidatures for the Treasurer: Each candidate shall be proposed by a World Aquatics Member of his/her Continental Organisation. The World Aquatics Member shall provide the name of its candidate to the Executive Director by email at least three (3) months before the relevant Congress. The candidate for the position of the treasurer shall be counted from the continental representative quota as per Article 14.3 of this Constitution.

16 THE BUREAU: ELECTIONS

16.1 Election of the President: A candidate is elected if he or she obtains a majority (50% + 1) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes are not counted.

16.2 Election of the First Vice President: The Congress shall elect a First Vice President among the elected five Vice Presidents. Only a candidate proposed by the five elected Vice Presidents is eligible. A candidate is elected if he or she obtains a majority (50% + 1) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes are not counted. If a candidate does not obtain the required majority, the five Vice Presidents must present another candidate before the end of the Congress.

16.3 Election of the Second Vice President: The Congress shall elect a Second Vice President among the elected five Vice Presidents. Only a candidate proposed by the five elected Vice Presidents is eligible. A candidate is elected if he or she obtains a majority (50% + 1) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes are not counted. If a candidate does not obtain the required majority, the five Vice Presidents must present another candidate before the end of the Congress.

16.4 Election of the further Vice Presidents: A candidate is elected if he or she obtains a majority (50% + 1) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes are not counted. If a candidate does not obtain the required majority, his/her Continental Organisation must present another candidate before the end of the Congress.
16.5 Election of the Treasurer: A candidate is elected if he or she obtains a majority (50% + 1) of the valid votes cast. Abstentions and invalid votes are not counted. The President and the Vice Presidents are not eligible for the position of Treasurer.

16.6 Method and Majority: Elections shall be conducted by secret ballot. The Bureau shall decide how to conduct the elections. Voting by correspondence (including email) and/or online is permitted. In case the number of candidates is not higher than the number of free positions, the Congress may decide to elect the candidates by acclamation. In case there is more than one candidate for a free position, the candidate who obtains the highest number of valid votes cast is elected. In case of a tie, a second ballot is conducted whereby the candidates with the lowest number of votes is eliminated and the process repeats until only two candidates for a free position are left. Abstentions and invalid votes shall not be counted. Specific majority requirements for certain positions according to this Constitution remain reserved. The President and the Treasurer shall be elected at a different Congress than the electoral Congress for the other Bureau Members.

17 THE BUREAU: RIGHTS AND DUTIES

17.1 Rights and duties of the Bureau shall include the following:

a) to discuss and make decisions on all matters assigned to the Bureau by the Congress;

b) to interpret, implement and enforce this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules;

17.2 Bureau Members shall be ex-officio members with a voting right in the bureau and the general assembly of the respective National Federation to which they are affiliated, or by default, the National Federation of which they are citizen.

18 THE EXECUTIVE: RIGHTS AND DUTIES

18.1 The Executive shall consist of at least eight (8) Bureau Members: the President, the First Vice President, the Second Vice President, the Treasurer, the three (3) other Vice Presidents, and the Chair of the Athletes Committee.

18.2 The Executive is responsible:

a) for dealing with all matters within the competence of the Bureau requiring immediate decision between two meetings of the Bureau;

b) for monitoring the establishment and implementation of the annual business plan and the long-term strategic plans defined and approved by the Bureau and ensuring that audited Financial Statements are submitted to the Bureau for approval by Congress;

c) for being the interface between the Bureau, the Executive Director and the World Aquatics Office;

d) for dealing with critical issues which may impact on the outcomes of the strategy defined by the Bureau and matters requiring immediate attention between meetings of the Bureau;
e) for taking decisions in case of emergency and in any situation in which neither the Bureau nor other World Aquatics body may act; and

f) for taking decisions on the application of World Aquatics Rules, in cases which are not delegated to the Aquatics Integrity Unit or another specific body of World Aquatics.

18.3 Decisions of the Executive shall be ratified in due course by the Bureau.

18.4 Terms of Office: The term of office of a member of the Executive (excluding the President for whom Article 20.3 applies) is four (4) years, renewable twice. Terms served are calculated cumulatively, irrespective of any interruption of the service. If a Bureau Member is elected to a position within the Executive, any previous term served outside the Executive (i.e. as a Bureau Member) is not counted as part of the new term of office within the Executive. If an Executive Member (e.g. a Vice President) is elected to a new position within the Executive (e.g. as Treasurer), any previous term served within the Executive (e.g. as a Vice President) is counted as part of the individual’s overall term of office in the Executive.

19 BUREAU AND EXECUTIVE MEETINGS

19.1 The Bureau shall meet as, when and where required, and at least twice a year.

19.2 The Executive shall meet as, when and where required.

19.3 Meetings of the Bureau and of the Executive can take place in person, by phone, by videoconference or any other appropriate means.

19.4 The President shall convene meetings of the Bureau and provide an agenda in advance by way of letter and/or email. The President must convene a meeting if such is requested by at least thirteen (13) Bureau Members.

19.5 Meetings of the Executive may be convened at any time by the President.

19.6 The Executive Director shall and is entitled to attend all Bureau and Executive meetings without vote. The President may, from time to time, invite other persons to attend meetings of the Bureau or of the Executive as appropriate, to provide specialized knowledge or specific information. The Minutes of the meetings of the Bureau and the Executive are taken under the responsibility of the President.
19.7 A quorum of fifteen (15) Bureau Members and of five (5) Executive Members applies for Bureau and respectively Executive meetings. A Bureau or an Executive Member cannot appoint a third-party to represent him or her at a meeting.

19.8 The Bureau and Executive may issue decisions by circular vote by email.

19.9 Unless otherwise specified in this Constitution, decisions taken at a meeting of the Bureau or the Executive are made by Simple Majority of the valid votes of the Members present. Decisions by circular vote require the Simple Majority of the valid votes cast within the deadline set by the President or the Executive Director.

19.10 Bureau and Executive meetings are confidential. Bureau Members shall keep strictly confidential any information or documentation they receive in connection with their function as Bureau and/or Executive Members.

   f) the Artistic Swimming Committee; and
   g) the Masters Committee.

25.3 The Specialised Committees are defined in the By-laws.

25.4 The Bureau shall be entitled to propose to the President any kind of new Committee, ad hoc Committee, task force group or working commission as deemed appropriate.

25.5 Unless otherwise expressly provided for by this Constitution, the composition, specific duties and powers of the Committees shall be stipulated in the By-laws or in specific organisation regulations to be issued by the Bureau, in line with the principles set out in this Constitution.

25.6 Each Committee may propose amendments to its regulations to the Bureau.

25.7 Unless otherwise expressly provided for by this Constitution, the Chairs, Vice Chairs, and members of the Committees are appointed by the Bureau, in principle upon receipt of proposals by the World Aquatics Members and taking into consideration geographical and gender representation and the kind of expertise and knowledge required. They may be appointed for such number of successive terms as considered appropriate by the Bureau, with a maximum of three (3) terms for each position, with normally four (4) years per each term, unless otherwise specified in this Constitution. Terms served are calculated cumulatively, irrespective of any interruption.
of the service. The Bureau can terminate and replace a Committee Member and/or fill any vacancy at any time.

25.8 The Chair of a Committee shall inform the Executive Director on a regular basis about the activities of the Committee and report any recommendations or needs that the Committee may have. The Chair shall ensure, with the assistance of the Executive Director, a regular exchange of communications between the Committee and the Bureau.

25.9 The Bureau shall review from time to time, but at least once every four (4) years, the composition of all Committees and either reconfirm their existing members and/or appoint new members. The Bureau may appoint to the Committees additional members who are experts in the area for which the committee has been established irrespective of the foregoing rule.

25.10 The Committees shall meet whenever there is business to be dealt with, all meetings being subject to the prior approval of the Executive Director. Meetings of the Committees can take place in person, by phone, by videoconference or any other appropriate means.

25.11 The majority of Committee members (50% + 1) shall form a quorum at any meeting.

25.12 All recommendations or decisions made by any Committee, require the approval of the Bureau in order to become effective.

25.13 The Bureau may appoint a person to facilitate an appropriate exchange of communications between the Committee, its Chair, the Executive Director and the Bureau. Such person does not need to be a Bureau Member.

VI ORGANISATION OF COMPETITIONS AND EVENTS

26 APPROVAL OF COMPETITIONS AND EVENTS

26.1 Continental Organisations, World Aquatics Members and/or members of World Aquatics Members (including clubs) as well as independent organizers must, before announcing dates and place for championships or events which they organize or sanction within their jurisdiction, seek approval by World Aquatics.

26.2 The World Aquatics approval shall include the following determinations:
a) dates for the championships/events;
b) competition programmes;
c) doping control organisational measures;
d) health and security organisational measures; and
e) any deviation from World Aquatics Rules and requirements.

26.3 The approval by World Aquatics shall determine the conditions and requirements in accordance with the World Aquatics Rules, while the appointment of World Aquatics representatives (delegates and/or Officials) shall be granted by the Executive. All Athletes must comply with World Aquatics eligibility rules.

26.4 If approval is granted, the respective championships or events shall be supervised by one or more World Aquatics representatives (delegates and/or Officials).

26.5 The Bureau may issue more detailed approval rules to ensure and facilitate a proper organisation of Aquatics competitions all over the world.

VII FINANCE

27 FINANCIAL MONITORING AND CONTROL

27.1 Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of World Aquatics is the calendar year.

27.2 Financial Statements: For each calendar year the World Aquatics Office shall establish, under the supervision of the Treasurer, the Financial Statements. The annual Financial Statements shall be audited by the External Auditors, reviewed by the Audit Committee, approved by the Bureau and published on the World Aquatics website.

27.3 Approval of the Financial Statements: The Ordinary Congress shall approve the audited Financial Statements covering the time period of two (2) fiscal years.

27.4 Budget: The annual budget of World Aquatics shall be prepared by the World Aquatics Office under the supervision of the Treasurer and reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Bureau shall approve the budget every year. The Ordinary Congress shall approve the budget presenting two (2) fiscal years.

27.5 Strategic Financial Plan: In cooperation with the Treasurer, the World Aquatics Office shall prepare and keep updated a long-term strategic financial plan.
27.6 Internal Control System: The World Aquatics Office, in cooperation with the Treasurer, shall implement an adequate internal control system, the existence of which is verified by the External Auditor as part of the normal audit procedure. The Audit Committee shall review reports prepared by the External Auditors highlighting control weaknesses and request from the Treasurer and the World Aquatics Office any other information they deem appropriate to report to the Bureau.

27.7 External Advisor: When appropriate, the World Aquatics Office may select an external specialist to undertake a specific review of the distribution and the utilisation of World Aquatics Development Funds. The specialist shall provide reports to the Audit Committee and the Bureau.

28 EXTERNAL AUDITORS

On a proposal from the Bureau, prepared by the Audit Committee, the Congress shall appoint for a period of four years independent qualified auditors to audit, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards the Financial Statements and to draw up a report to be submitted to the Congress in accordance with this Constitution. The Congress can decide to renew the mandate of the External Auditors.

VIII DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

29 SANCTIONS

29.1 Any Member, member of a Member, or individual member of a Member, any Continental Organisation as well as any individual subject to this Constitution and/or the World Aquatics Rules, including Athletes, Athlete Support Personnel, Coaches, Agents and Officials, may be sanctioned:

a) if duties and obligations to World Aquatics are not fulfilled; or

b) in case of violation of this Constitution and/or the World Aquatics Rules or of decisions or directions of the Congress, the Bureau, the Executive, any other body of World Aquatics or the Court of Arbitration for Sport; or

   c) for any unsportsmanlike conduct; or

   d) for bringing the Aquatics and/or World Aquatics into disrepute.

29.2 Sanctions include, but are not limited to:
a) warning or reprimand;
b) fine;
c) suspension, expulsion, withdrawal of recognition;
d) disqualification from Competitions or Events;
e) cancellation of results;
f) ban;
g) withdrawal of titles, return of awards, medals, prizes, etc.;
h) suspension or limitations from carrying out a function in Aquatics or to exercise any Aquatics-related activity;
i) order restrictions for a certain Competition or Event or event location; and
j) withholding of revenues from a Competition or Event.

29.3 Disciplinary measures and sanctions may be imposed provisionally or finally and cumulatively, i.e. in combination with further measures and sanctions. Measures may include the appointment of a Stabilization Committee as per Article 8.

29.4 Further disciplinary measures and sanctions may be defined in this Constitution or the World Aquatics Rules or in other rules and regulations issued by the Bureau.

30 DISCIPLINARY POWERS AND PRINCIPLES

30.1 Sanctions shall be imposed by the competent World Aquatics body, in accordance with this Constitution and the World Aquatics Rules.

30.2 Any sanction or measure imposed by World Aquatics shall be recognised and enforced by all Members.

30.3 Before any Member, Continental Organisation or individual is sanctioned, the individual or a representative of the Member or of the Continental Organisation must be given an opportunity to exercise a right to be heard, either orally or in writing. In urgent matters, appropriate measures may be taken.

30.4 Sanctions shall be in force immediately upon the decision being made unless the deciding body rules otherwise.

30.5 Subject to specific provisions of World Aquatics Rules, World Aquatics may no longer engage proceedings in respect to violations of World Aquatics Rules when such action is not initiated within ten (10) years of the event to which it relates. This statute of limitation does not apply to cases of sexual misconduct, bribery or corruption.
30.6 Unless otherwise provided in this Constitution or in the World Aquatics Rules, a final decision of World Aquatics imposing a disciplinary sanction or measure can be appealed within twenty-one (21) Days from the date of the decision to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS). The recourse to other tribunals or courts is excluded. The CAS shall also have exclusive jurisdiction over interlocutory orders and interim measures and no other court or tribunal shall have authority to issue interlocutory orders or interim measures relating to matters before the CAS.

IX RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

31 ARBITRATION

31.1 World Aquatics recognises the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS), with seat in Lausanne, Switzerland, as exclusive court to resolve any kind of disputes between World Aquatics, World Aquatics Members, members of World Aquatics Members, Continental Organisations, National Aquatics bodies, Athletes, Officials and any person or organisation subject to this Constitution and/or any World Aquatics rule or regulation.

31.2 Provided no internal legal remedy is available, any appeal against a final decision of World Aquatics shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of CAS within twenty-one (21) Days from the date of the decision being appealed. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable World Aquatics Rules, an appeal shall not have suspensive effect: subject to any other decision by CAS, the decision being appealed shall therefore remain in full force. World Aquatics is entitled to file an appeal to CAS against any final and binding decision of a body of World Aquatics.

31.3 The CAS shall resolve any dispute in accordance with the Code of Sports-related Arbitration (the “CAS Code”), this Constitution, the applicable World Aquatics Rules and subsidiarily Swiss law.

31.4 World Aquatics Members and Continental Organisations shall recognise CAS as an independent judicial authority and comply with CAS decisions. Further, World Aquatics Members and Continental Organisations shall ensure that themselves as well as their members and officials comply with the decisions passed by CAS.

31.5 Recourse to ordinary state courts is prohibited.
X FINAL PROVISIONS

32 DISSOLUTION
32.1 World Aquatics may be dissolved only by a three-quarters (3/4) majority vote at a Congress convened for this specific purpose.
32.2 In the event of dissolution, the Congress shall appoint a liquidator who shall discharge all debts and liabilities incurred on behalf of World Aquatics. The remaining assets, if any, shall be donated as directed by the Congress to a suitable body for the ongoing promotion and development of Aquatics.

33 LANGUAGE
The official language of World Aquatics shall be English.

34 NOTIFICATIONS
Any notification of World Aquatics to Members, Continental Organisations, members of Members, Athletes, Coaches and other persons subject to Swiss law shall be made by email, unless a different form is foreseen by this Constitution or the applicable World Aquatics Rules.

35 MATTERS NOT COVERED IN THIS CONSTITUTION
Any matter not covered in this Constitution shall be decided by the Bureau, in accordance with the World Aquatics Rules and following the principles of the Mission of World Aquatics.

36 GOVERNING LAW
This Constitution shall be governed and interpreted by Swiss law.

37 ENTRY INTO FORCE
37.1 This Constitution has been adopted at the Congress of 12 December 2022 in Melbourne, Australia, and has come into force on 1 January 2023.
37.2 Any amendment of the Constitution shall become effective immediately unless otherwise determined at the time of such decision.
TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

Notwithstanding the entry into force of this Constitution, the following transitory provisions shall apply:

a) The new composition of the Bureau as set out in Article 14 shall come into effect on 1 January 2023, with the new additional positions within the Bureau to be filled by the Bureau in consultation with the Continental Organisations, in application of Article 14;

b) The current term of the elected President shall expire in 2023. In case of re-election in 2023, the term starting in 2023 shall be considered the first eight (8) year term as per Article 14.7;

c) The current term of the elected Treasurer shall expire in 2023. In case of re-election in 2023, the term starting in 2023 shall be considered a first four (4) year term as per Article 14.7;

d) The new composition of the Executive as set out in Article 18 shall come into effect on 1 January 2023. The current term of the additional member of the Executive nominated by the President shall end upon the natural expiry of the appointment (i.e. in 2025);

e) At the time of adoption of this Constitution, any term of office completed before 2017 shall be disregard in calculating the number of full terms that a person has served as a Bureau or Executive Member;

f) Bureau Members that are in office as Bureau Members at the time of adoption of this Constitution and that have reached the age of 75 years during their term of office, shall cease to be Bureau Members at the end of their current terms;

g) The Bureau shall issue appropriate guidelines and set appropriate deadlines to Continental Organisations as well as to World Aquatics Members to take the necessary actions to amend their statutes, rules and regulations to be fully compliant with this Constitution.

Melbourne, 12 December 2022

For the Congress:

The President     The Executive Director
