WELCOME TO WORLD CLASS

WELCOME MESSAGES

Captain Husain Al Musallam

World Aquatics President

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to Singapore for the 22nd edition of the World Aquatics Championships.

Situated at the heart of Asia, Singapore is a vibrant and forward-looking city where tradition and innovation meet. With its iconic skyline, world-class infrastructure, and deep-rooted appreciation for sport, Singapore provides a perfect stage for aquatics' premier global showcase.

On behalf of World Aquatics, I would like to express our sincere gratitude to Singapore for embracing our shared passion for aquatic sport and stepping forward to host this landmark edition. From staging multiple Diving Grand Prix events, World Cups in swimming, water polo, and open water swimming, to memorable milestones like the 2010 Youth Olympic Games and the 2015 World Junior Swimming Championships, Singapore has consistently demonstrated its ability to deliver outstanding international events. The thrilling finale of last year's record-breaking Swimming World Cup was yet another example.

This summer, more than 2,600 athletes from over 200 countries will compete across six aquatic disciplines. From the OCBC Aquatic Centre to the World Aquatics Championships Arena and the beaches of Sentosa, Singapore offers world-class venues and an unmistakable enthusiasm for aquatics. These Championships are about more than competition—they're about the shared dedication that unites athletes, fans, and nations through aquatics.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to our local organising committee, partners, officials, volunteers, and staff, whose dedication and hard work make this world-class event possible.

We look forward to unforgettable performances and invite you to cheer on the world's finest aquatic athletes. I also hope you will take the opportunity to enjoy Singapore's rich culture and warm hospitality during your stay.

To all participating athletes: best of luck in your competitions. We are proud to support you and will be cheering you through every stroke, dive, goal, and performance.

WELCOME MESSAGES

Message from Mr. Alan Goh and Mr. Mark Chay

Co-Chairs of the World Aquatics
Championships - Singapore 2025
Organising Committee

Welcome to Singapore for the World Aquatics Championships 2025! As the first Southeast Asian nation to host this prestigious event, we are honoured to provide a stage for the world's best aquatic talents. Hosting this competition is especially significant as it coincides with Singapore's SG60 celebrations— marking 60 years of our nation's independence.

So, this is more than just a sporting event; it is also a national celebration, and we invite you to join in the festivities happening alongside the competition. Following the elite Championships, the excitement continues as we expect to welcome about 6,000 competitors aged 25 and above for the World Aquatics Masters Championships.

Beyond the competitive action in the arenas, athletes and visitors to the Championships can look forward to an exciting line-up of activities for all ages. From mobile roadshows and sport try-outs to sustainability initiatives, there is something for everyone to enjoy and be part of this extraordinary occasion.

Whether you are a competing athlete or an enthusiastic fan, we are committed to delivering an enjoyable experience. We hope that the energy, passion and spirit of the competition will create lasting memories for all.

Our team has been working hard behind the scenes with our partners, and we are excited to welcome all of you. To all athletes, we wish you all the very best in your competitions and wish you a memorable stay in Singapore.

ABOUT SINGAPORE 2025

WORLD AQUATICS CHAMPIONSHIPS SINGAPORE 2025

WATER SHAPES US

Singapore is a dynamic city shaped by its vibrant culture, multicultural community, lush landscapes and waterways that thrive across the Lion City. The World Aquatics Championships - Singapore 2025 logo reflects these elements

At the centre of the logo is the Merlion, an enduring symbol of Singapore that is recognised around the world and symbolises the strength and resilience of our people.

The statue's lion-head is representative of Singapore's original name of Singapura and its lower half is representative of Singapore's origin as a fishing village. In the background, water is flowing upward, representing progress and adaptability. The colour red is inspired by the Singapore flag, while the vibrant colours represents Singapore's dynamism in culture.

The event's theme, 'Water Shapes Us', encapsulates Singapore's relationship with water and its significance in Singapore's development and identity as a nation.

Water shapes Singapore's geography and is crucial in the nation's economic growth. The tagline also demonstrates how the championships in Singapore will nurture and celebrate opportunities for collective achievement and camaraderie. Water shapes everything in Singapore. It shapes our geography. It shapes our growth. It shapes us as a nation. It shapes every opportunity for us to win together in front of the world.

MAKE HISTORY WITH MAZDA.

MASCOTS

Meet Ollie

Cheeky and cheerful, Ollie the urban otter has found a special home in Singapore - not just in the waterways, but also in the hearts of its people! Often seen cruising through the waters of our Garden City or playfully traversing Singapore's bustling streets, Ollie is a familiar and beloved sight.

An excellent swimmer, Ollie's smooth, fur-covered body sleekly glides through the water before popping up with a friendly wave for fans on land. Ollie is the embodiment of 'water alongside land' and 'nature alongside civilisation'.

Meet Dewey

Dewey the dugong is a gentle marine mammal native to Singapore's coastal waters. When it comes to style and grace, few can compete with Dewey in the water. Grazing the warm waters of coastal Singapore, Dewey deftly manoeuvres the strongest currents with its strength and rigor. As one of Singapore's vulnerable natural sea wonders, Dewey is rather elusive. So, if you see the friendly Dewey, make sure to say hi and work together to raise environmental awareness and protect the nation's marine ecosystems!

MEDALS

Singapore 2025 efforts towards Sustainability

A Community-Led Recycling Effort

Trash to Treasure: Singapore 2025 turns recycled aluminium into World Aquatics Championships medals.

This is a novel initiative by the Singapore 2025 Organising Committee to collect approximately 100,000 aluminium cans to produce 5,000 medals. Students from five PCF Sparkletots Preschool Centres, eight primary schools, and three secondary schools are leading the charge in this effort through the School Recycling League. This programme encourages students to actively participate in recycling activities, fostering environmental responsibility from an early age.

Recycling Process

The collected aluminum cans will undergo open-loop recycling, where they're processed, cleaned, and smelted into medals.

Voices Behind the Movement

Mr Mark Chay, Co-Chair of the Singapore 2025 Organising Committee, highlighted the significance of integrating sustainability into major sporting events: "Sustainability is a key consideration for organisers of large-scale events as we strive to reduce our environmental impact. The 'Trash to Treasure' initiative demonstrates how simple, greener habits can be seamlessly incorporated into daily life while driving meaningful change. The enthusiasm of students and schools in this programme is truly inspiring and underscores the power of collective action."

Fun Facts about the Medals

The medal weigh approximately 150 grams, incorporating recycled materials instead of new raw aluminum. Approximately 20 recycled cans were used to create each medal.

OFFICIAL TIMEKEEPER OF WORLD AQUATICS

In the water, history is determined by split-seconds. That's why OMEGA is entrusted as the Official Timekeeper of the 22nd World Aquatics Championships. Every athlete in Singapore will be backed by the Swiss brand's legacy of sporting precision, which extends back over 90 years. Along with this vast experience, OMEGA also brings the most innovative equipment and undoubtable expertise, ensuring that each result, victory, and record is measured with excellence. The very same high standard that is guaranteed with the Seamaster Diver 300M.

Language

The languages of Singapore are English, Mandarin Chinese, Malay and Tamil, with the lingua franca between Singaporeans being English, the de facto main language in daily, governmental, legal, trade and commercial affairs.

Among themselves, Singaporeans often speak Singlish, an English blend arising from centuries of melding between Singapore's multi-ethnic and multilingual society and its legacy of being a British colony.

Climate and Time Zone

Power Plug

The standard electrical current used in Singapore is 220-240 volts AC (50 cycles) and you may use power plugs with three square prongs here. Banks and Credit Cards

Major credit cards are widely accepted in Singapore, and many ATM's accept cards issued by US financial institutions. Smaller retailers in Singapore may accept cash payments only.

Safe Drinking Water

Tap water in Singapore surpasses World Health Organization standards. You may drink water straight from the source or easily purchase them from stores.
